WELCOME

Dear Faith Walker,

Welcome to RESTORE: Your 7-Day Jericho Walk + 24-Hour Prayer Watch.

You are not here by accident. You have been divinely summoned into a prophetic journey—a sacred call to action for your spirit, your future, and your legacy. This is more than a devotional. It is a divine blueprint for full recovery, radical breakthrough, and Spirit-led advancement.

Over the next seven days, you will walk, watch, and war. You will circle areas of long-standing resistance—altars that have spoken against your destiny, silence that has buried your voice, brokenness that has crippled your boldness, and time that has been lost to delay and distraction. But here's the promise: you will not walk alone. Heaven marches with you.

Each daily devotion in this guide is built around a specific focus of restoration. These are not random themes; they are Spirit-led strategies. You will begin with tearing down evil altars, the unseen structures that have illegally claimed space in your life. You will then move into the recovery of your voice, your identity, your destiny, and more. On the seventh day, you will walk in total victory and enter the inheritance God always intended for you.

This is not a casual activity. It is a prophetic act.

You are about to open your mouth and shift atmospheres. You will decree truth. You will cancel lies. You will reestablish heaven's agenda in your life. This walk will be marked by confrontation—but it will also be marked by revelation and restoration. So expect God to speak. Expect walls to fall. Expect dry bones to rise.

Expect RESTORATION.

Now is the time to take your place on the wall. This guide is your companion. But the Spirit of God is your true Guide. Lean in. Listen deeply. March boldly. Let the Jericho walls in your life crumble. Let the ruins become revival.

With you on the wall,
Dr. Nadine

The Jericho Walk: RESTORE

There are moments in our lives when what we need is not just a breakthrough, but a full restoration. A divine reset. A reclaiming of what was lost, delayed, or stolen. RESTORE is not simply a word—it is a prophetic summons. A call to return to alignment with God's original design for your life, your family, your destiny, your finances, your identity, your authority.

This 7-Day Jericho Walk is a consecrated journey of reclamation. Just as Joshua led Israel around the walls of Jericho in strategic obedience until those walls fell, you are being called to walk—daily, deliberately, and prayerfully—believing that every step you take is collapsing enemy barriers and restoring your spiritual territory.

This is not a passive devotional. This is an active faith assignment.

Restoration is not a wish. It is a war. And God has given us the strategy.

Each day of this journey has been crafted with divine intentionality. You will confront and tear down evil altars. You will reclaim your voice, your virtue, your calling. You will break generational limitations and recover what was hidden. You will receive fresh oil, divine strategy, and God-ordained victory.

This is a call to stand up, walk out, and step in.

You are not walking to recover what the enemy took—you are walking to receive what Heaven preserved.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PARTICIPANTS

1. Prepare Your Heart

Begin each day with personal devotion. Confess any known sin, release offense, and ask the Holy Spirit to lead your walk and your war. Restoration begins with repentance and readiness.

2. Choose Your Territory

Walk around your home, workplace, school, or neighborhood—wherever God directs you. Let it represent the spiritual ground you are reclaiming. Name your wall. Name what you're reclaiming.

3. Follow the Daily Walk Plan

Walk once a day for the first six days. On Day Seven, walk seven times. Speak the daily Scripture aloud as you walk. Declare every prayer boldly.

4. Speak the Word

God's Word is the weapon and the warranty. Use the daily scriptures, declarations, and warfare prayers. Restoration must be spoken before it is seen.

5. Worship as You Walk

Use suggested worship songs or your own playlist. Restoration flows in an atmosphere of worship. Let your walk be a sanctuary.

6. Journal & Reflect

Each day ends with a section for personal notes and reflection. Write what you hear, what you see, what shifts. Track your restoration.

7. Complete the Walk with a Watch

After Day 7, immediately enter the 24-Hour Prayer Watch. Restoration is sealed through continuous intercession.

8. Engage in Unity

Invite others to walk with you in spirit or in person. There is power in collective movement. Restoration multiplied is revival ignited.

Joel 2:25 (NKJV):

“So I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten...”

Get ready. This is not just a walk.

This is a return. A recovery. A restoration.

DAY 1: TEARING DOWN EVIL ALTARS

Theme: Ancestral altars, witchcraft, monitoring spirits, territorial altars

Devotional Teaching: “Confronting the Altars of Your Bloodline”

Before walls fall, altars must be torn down.

Altars are places of spiritual transaction—where covenants are made, renewed, or broken. In Scripture, they were physical locations where offerings were laid, but in the spiritual realm, altars are systems—built by words, rituals, sacrifices, or generational covenants. Some altars were erected by your ancestors. Others by community leaders. Some were even unknowingly authorized by your own actions.

The enemy thrives when these altars are left unchallenged.

Unbroken altars mean uninterrupted access.

They become legal ground for monitoring spirits, cycles of defeat, untimely deaths, stagnation, and stolen destinies.

But here's your truth:

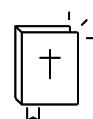

You were not called to negotiate with darkness—you were called to overthrow it.

Like Gideon in Judges 6, you are commissioned to tear down your father's altars—the systems and cycles passed down that oppose your divine inheritance. Gideon couldn't lead a national revival until he first destroyed the idolatrous altar in his father's house. Likewise, your national (and spiritual) breakthrough begins with confronting the altars in your own bloodline and region.

Witchcraft, ancestral pacts, covenants made on your behalf, demonic dedications, and generational idolatry must be exposed and overthrown.

Altars are spiritual legal structures, and they don't just disappear—they must be dismantled by higher authority.

You carry that authority.

Key Scriptures

- Judges 6:25-26 (KJV) – “Throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it: And build an altar unto the Lord thy God...”
- Deuteronomy 12:3 (NLT) – “Break down their altars and smash their sacred pillars. Burn their Asherah poles and cut down their carved idols.”
- Jeremiah 1:10 (NIV) – “See, today I appoint you over nations and kingdoms to uproot and tear down, to destroy and overthrow, to build and to plant.”
- Psalm 18:44-45 (KJV) – “As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me... The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their close places.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Renunciation

Father, in the name of Jesus, I renounce every ancestral altar—known and unknown—that has been erected on my behalf or by my bloodline. I disconnect from covenants made through rituals, blood, sacrifice, or declarations. Let every evil agreement be nullified by the blood of Jesus.

2. Prayer of Dismantling

I tear down every evil altar assigned to my name, my family, my finances, my marriage, and my purpose. Every altar calling my name, speaking against my progress, or fueling delay—I command you to burn by Holy Ghost fire!

3. Prayer of Dispossession

Every demonic priest officiating at evil altars against my life—be silenced now! Let the fire of God consume your sacrifice, your incantations, your manipulations. I take back every spiritual ground surrendered through ignorance, fear, or sin.

4. Territorial Intercession

I stand in authority as a gatekeeper over my home, family, community, and region. I break the power of territorial altars that have kept entire bloodlines in captivity. Let the altars of poverty, rejection, barrenness, and shame be destroyed in the name of Jesus!

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Lift your voice and declare:

- I am the altar of the Lord.
- The fire of God on my life is greater than any evil altar.
- I sever every soul tie, blood tie, and covenant with darkness.
- My name will no longer be summoned on evil altars.
- I invoke the speaking blood of Jesus to override every ritual, every curse, every sacrifice done in darkness.
- From today, I operate under open heavens—no more delay, no more stagnation, no more demonic interference!
- I declare: The altars have fallen and I am free!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Take a few moments to journal:

- Have I discerned patterns in my life that suggest altars are still speaking?
- Are there altars (addictions, behaviors, fears) I've personally erected and need to tear down?
- What areas of my life seem to face repeated resistance despite prayer and effort?

Write what the Holy Spirit is revealing to you about your bloodline and your spiritual authority to confront it.

DAY 2: RECLAIMING YOUR VOICE

Theme: Silenced identities, spiritual suppression, fear of speaking, identity theft, stolen mantles

Devotional Teaching: “Your Voice is a Weapon”

When the enemy cannot kill your destiny, he tries to mute your voice.

There is a direct connection between your voice and your authority. The power to speak is the power to shape reality, birth purpose, and release prophetic decrees. From the beginning, God created by speaking. And in every generation, He raises men and women whose voices shift atmospheres and confront darkness.

That’s why hell targets your voice.

For some, that voice was stolen in childhood—silenced by abuse, shame, rejection, or trauma. For others, the voice was buried under religious legalism, cultural oppression, or systems that told you it was wrong to speak, wrong to lead, wrong to rise.

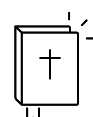

But here is God’s word to you today:

Your silence ends now.

Just like the prophet Jeremiah, God knew you before you were formed. He appointed you to speak. He put His words in your mouth, not to whisper them in secret, but to proclaim them publicly. The time has come to reclaim your voice and release the sound of freedom.

In the spirit realm, silence is agreement. But when you break your silence, you break demonic contracts. You shake systems. You announce to every altar, every principality, every lie—you will no longer be bound.

It is time to speak up, stand firm, and prophesy again.

Key Scriptures

- Jeremiah 1:9-10 (NIV) – “Then the Lord reached out His hand and touched my mouth and said to me, ‘I have put my words in your mouth. See, today I appoint you... to uproot and tear down... to build and to plant.’”
- Isaiah 42:22 (KJV) – “But this is a people robbed and spoiled... they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore.”
- Joel 3:16 (NKJV) – “The Lord also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; the heavens and earth will shake...”
- Psalm 81:10 (ESV) – “Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Release

Father, I release every word curse, trauma, or soul wound that silenced me. I forgive every person and system that muted my identity. I receive healing in my mind and heart. Restore my boldness to speak again.

2. Prayer of Recovery

Every demonic assignment that stole my voice, I cancel you now. I recover mantles, messages, and assignments lost through silence. I call back every word I was too afraid to release and every message I buried in fear.

3. Prayer of Authority

Father, touch my mouth again. Let Your Word burn in my bones. Make my voice thunder in the spirit realm. Give me clarity, courage, and conviction to speak as Your messenger.

4. Intercession for Others

Lord, awaken every silenced voice in my family and generation. Let women who were silenced by abuse rise and roar again. Let men who lost their confidence speak with power. Let prophets speak, let worshippers sing, let intercessors cry out.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Speak these aloud with power:

- I was born to speak, not to shrink.
- My silence is broken and my voice is rising.
- God has put His words in my mouth, and I will not be afraid.
- I reject every muzzle and every lie that told me I was unqualified.
- My voice is anointed, appointed, and assigned to nations.
- I prophesy over my life: RESTORE!
- I reclaim my voice, and I will never be silent again!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Take time to journal:

- What early experience may have stolen or silenced my voice?
- What message has God put inside me that I've been afraid to release?
- In what spaces do I still hesitate to speak with boldness?

Write what the Holy Spirit is revealing to you. Ask Him to anoint your voice for His purpose and power.

[illegible]

DAY 3: RECLAIMING LOST GLORY

Theme: Lost mantles, stolen favor, cycles of shame, hidden greatness

Devotional Teaching: “The Return of the Crown”

Glory can be stolen.

The enemy’s tactic has never changed—he traffics in stolen destinies, misplaced identity, and delayed manifestation. Many believers are walking through life unaware that what they’re fighting is the result of glory that was hijacked—through sin, trauma, ancestral transactions, or demonic exchanges.

Glory is your spiritual weight. It is the divine imprint of God’s favor, authority, and purpose on your life. It’s what makes people notice you without knowing why. What causes doors to open that you didn’t even knock on. It’s the radiance that reveals your divine assignment and magnetizes resources, honor, and opportunity.

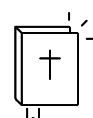

But when that glory is tampered with, life becomes a cycle of invisibility, dishonor, and frustration.

Like Mephibosheth, you may have been dropped—not by your own sin, but by those assigned to protect you. Yet God specializes in restoring those whose glory has been hidden or lost. In 2 Samuel 9, King David sought out Mephibosheth, not because of anything he’d done, but because of covenant.

God is looking for you—not to shame you, but to seat you at the table again.

Your crown is being recovered. Your glory is being restored.

Just as God restored Job’s honor double for every loss, so too will He restore the parts of you that were damaged, delayed, or dismantled. Every public shame will be met with public favor. Every stolen mantle will be re-cloaked in glory. Every altar that traded your future will be overturned by heaven’s decree.

Key Scriptures

- 2 Samuel 9:7 (KJV) – “Fear not: for I will surely shew thee kindness... and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.”
- Isaiah 61:7 (NIV) – “Instead of your shame you will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace you will rejoice in your inheritance...”
- Job 42:10 (NKJV) – “And the Lord restored Job’s losses when he prayed for his friends. Indeed, the Lord gave Job twice as much as he had before.”
- Psalm 3:3 (KJV) – “But thou, O Lord, art a shield for me; my glory, and the lifter up of mine head.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Recognition

Father, I acknowledge every area where my glory has been stolen—through trauma, sin, generational error, or spiritual ignorance. I ask You to shine light on every dark exchange that caused my crown to fall. Open my eyes to see the root of my loss.

2. Prayer of Retrieval

In the name of Jesus, I call back my glory. Every spiritual mantle, honor, favor, and visibility that was stolen from my life—I command a divine reversal. Let the angels of the Lord retrieve what was taken and restore it sevenfold.

3. Prayer of Restoration

Lord, restore unto me the years that were lost. Let every missed opportunity, every sabotaged promotion, every rejected calling be redeemed. Seat me again at the table of honor. Restore me to my rightful position in the spirit and in the earth.

4. Generational Recovery

Father, I stand in the gap for my bloodline. Every family member who lost their glory—who died in shame, who lived beneath their purpose—I lift their stories to You. Let my restoration be the beginning of a generational recovery. Restore the legacy of honor and favor in my family.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Declare these boldly:

- My glory is returning.
- I wear my crown again with no shame and no apology.
- The weight of God's favor is visible upon my life.
- The thief has been caught, and heaven demands full restoration.
- I will no longer be hidden. I am a city on a hill.
- I sit at the King's table. I walk in restored glory. I stand in recovered purpose.
- I declare: My glory is not lost. It is restored!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Take a few moments to reflect and write:

- What areas of my life reflect lost glory—dreams I gave up, roles I retreated from, seasons I mishandled?
- Who or what “dropped” me? Where do I need to release forgiveness?
- How is God inviting me to reclaim my seat at the table of honor?

Let the Holy Spirit reveal any hidden altars, family stories, or personal decisions that traded your crown. Then allow Him to re-cloak you in favor.

DAY 4: REBUILDING DESTINY PATHS

Theme: Divine alignment, purpose recovery, prophetic direction, delayed destinies

Devotional Teaching: “When the Road is Rebuilt”

You were born with a path.

Before your birth, God wrote the pages of your destiny—assignments, relationships, locations, and moments designed to shape your calling. But along the journey, detours happened. Some were caused by sin. Others by delay, disappointment, or distraction. Some were spiritual attacks meant to block or reroute your progress. The result? Many are walking, but not in the direction of destiny.

God is not only a Restorer—He’s a Rebuilder.

In Isaiah 58:12, God calls His people “restorers of paths to dwell in.” This is more than poetic language. It’s prophetic instruction. Destiny can be rerouted, redeemed, and rebuilt—but it requires agreement with heaven’s blueprint. That means surrendering our self-designed plans and stepping back into alignment with divine purpose.

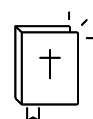

In Luke 1, John the Baptist’s purpose was clear: to prepare the way of the Lord and make paths straight. He was not building his own brand. He was restoring the road of prophecy. Your assignment is similar: realign with God’s original intent—not the version you’ve been settling for. Some of you were called to business but veered into bondage.

Some were called to ministry but got stuck in mediocrity.

Some were assigned to nations but settled for neighborhoods.

But this is your divine reset. The old detours end today.

God is handing you a spiritual map. He’s removing the barricades, exposing the wrong turns, and rebuilding the road that leads to your divine fulfillment.

Key Scriptures

- Isaiah 58:12 (NKJV) – “Those from among you shall build the old waste places... You shall be called the Repairer of the Breach, The Restorer of Streets to Dwell In.”
- Jeremiah 6:16 (NIV) – “Stand at the crossroads and look; ask for the ancient paths, ask where the good way is, and walk in it...”
- Luke 1:76, 79 (NIV) – “You will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him... to guide our feet into the path of peace.”
- Proverbs 3:6 (KJV) – “In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Surrender

Father, I lay down every self-made path, every direction I chose without consulting You. I repent for trusting my plans over Your purpose. I submit again to Your divine GPS. Redirect me to the road You ordained.

2. Prayer of Realignment

In the name of Jesus, I declare divine alignment in every area of my life. Let every delay, detour, and deviation be overturned. I break out of cycles of confusion and misdirection. Holy Spirit, lead me back to the path of purpose.

3. Prayer for Rebuilding

Lord, where the enemy has destroyed or delayed my destiny path, rebuild it. Where I've faced loss, restore speed. Where doors closed prematurely, reopen what is from You. Where I settled for less, upgrade me to divine standard.

4. Generational Destiny Recovery

I stand in intercession for my family. Every generational assignment that was aborted or abandoned—I call it forth. Let mantles be reactivated. Let destiny scrolls be reopened. Let our family walk in prophetic fulfillment.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Lift your voice and declare:

- I am back on the path God prepared for me.
- My destiny is realigned. My steps are ordered.
- Every delay is turned into divine acceleration.
- I will not wander—I will walk with prophetic precision.
- I will recover lost years, reclaim missed opportunities, and fulfill divine assignments.
- My path is clear. My road is rebuilt. My future is secure in God.
- I declare: I walk the highway of destiny!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Pause and journal:

- What path did I begin but never finish?
- Are there visions I buried because of fear, failure, or fatigue?
- Where have I walked in circles instead of forward movement?

Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal specific areas where divine realignment is needed—in your purpose, relationships, ministry, or assignment. Let this be a day of recalibration.

DAY 5: REPOSSESSING YOUR FINANCES

Theme: Financial captivity, stolen resources, demonic embargoes, economic restoration

Devotional Teaching: “Breaking the Yoke of Financial Bondage”

Money is not evil—misalignment is.

Finances are often the first area the enemy targets when he wants to cripple your influence, hinder your movement, or silence your purpose. In Scripture, wealth was not just about provision—it was a tool for kingdom expansion, generational blessing, and covenant expression.

Yet, many believers today live beneath their financial inheritance.

Some inherited lack through generational cycles. Others suffer from poor stewardship, misaligned relationships, or spiritual embargoes placed upon their resources. There are demonic forces assigned to restrict wealth flow—altars that speak poverty, spirits that enforce debt, and invisible hands that manipulate gain into loss.

But the Word of God makes one thing clear: God delights in the prosperity of His servants (Psalm 35:27).

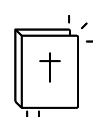

To repossess your finances means to take back control of what God has assigned to you. You must renounce every false belief that equates wealth with sin. You must confront the curses, contracts, and covenants—ancestral or personal—that block financial overflow. Like the widow in 2 Kings 4 who cried out to the prophet, your voice must rise with urgency. You must become anointed to gather, multiply, and sustain.

This is a day of economic emancipation.

God is releasing strategies, favor, and insight to steward wealth with wisdom and release what was once restricted. But you must war for it. You must break agreement with financial shame and walk into your divine supply.

Your provision is not coming—it’s already been assigned.

Now it must be repossessed.

Key Scriptures

- Deuteronomy 8:18 (NKJV) – “And you shall remember the Lord your God, for it is He who gives you power to get wealth...”
- Proverbs 13:22 (KJV) – “The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.”
- 2 Kings 4:1-7 (NIV) – The widow’s oil multiplied after prophetic instruction and obedience
- Joel 2:25-26 (NLT) – “The Lord says, ‘I will give you back what you lost... You will have all the food you want, and you will praise the Lord your God.’”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Financial Renunciation

Lord, I renounce every agreement—spoken or unspoken—that has tied me or my bloodline to poverty, debt, lack, or insufficiency. I break every generational curse of financial failure and call upon the blood of Jesus to sever all evil contracts limiting my economic freedom.

2. Prayer to Recover Stolen Wealth

Every treasure that has been buried, diverted, or stolen from my life—be it opportunities, inheritance, or favor—I call it forth by divine authority. I command a sevenfold restoration in the name of Jesus (Proverbs 6:31).

3. Prayer Against Economic Embargoes

Father, I cancel every demonic embargo placed upon my bank accounts, my business, my employment, or my ideas. Every spiritual padlock or invisible ceiling keeping me from breakthrough—break now by fire!

4. Prophetic Activation

I prophesy over my hands—they will gather wealth. I prophesy over my mind—it will receive divine financial strategies. I prophesy over my name—it will open doors for increase, not loss. Let divine prosperity locate me today.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Lift your voice and declare:

- I am not a financial victim—I am a steward of divine wealth.
- My money has a mission and my resources are kingdom-aligned.
- I break every invisible ceiling placed over my earnings and harvests.
- I declare divine ideas, contracts, clients, and open doors are locating me now.
- No more emergency spending, wasted years, or financial embarrassment.
- I operate under supernatural economy—seed multiplies, harvest chases me, overflow is my portion.
- From today, I walk in debt-free dominion and covenant prosperity!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Journal and reflect:

- What financial patterns have followed you or your family for generations?
- Are there limiting beliefs or spoken words you need to break agreement with (e.g., “we’ll never have enough,” “money always slips through my fingers”)?
- Has God given you an idea, vision, or instruction that you’ve delayed due to financial fear?

Take time today to write a new financial decree over your life, your children, your business or ministry. Make room for God’s divine economy to take root.

DAY 6: REBUILDING THE BROKEN PLACES

Theme: Personal restoration, emotional healing, broken relationships, shattered dreams

Devotional Teaching: “God Is a Rebuilder of Ruins”

Before God promotes you into new territory, He often heals you from the devastation of the last one.

We all carry brokenness in some form—fractured trust, buried trauma, deep disappointment, or relationships that left us in ruins. These broken places can feel like emotional landmines—triggering reactions, fueling insecurity, and keeping us from stepping boldly into the future. But God is not intimidated by ruins.

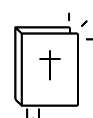

He specializes in restoration. He does not discard what’s broken—He rebuilds. The prophet Isaiah spoke of a people who would “rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated” (Isaiah 61:4). This is your inheritance—to partner with the Restorer in healing your inner landscape and repairing the breach.

Before the walls of Jericho fell, Israel had to be made whole. After years of wandering, trauma, and loss, they needed a reset in identity, trust, and faith. Likewise, you cannot conquer the next unless you heal from the last.

Rebuilding is not cosmetic—it’s covenantal.

God doesn’t just patch over your pain—He uproots the cause, heals the foundation, and establishes His peace. He is Jehovah Rapha, the God who heals... and He’s also the Master Builder who makes all things new.

It’s time to lay brick upon brick over your brokenness—with truth, prayer, worship, and hope. Let the ruins become a testimony.

Key Scriptures

- Isaiah 61:4 (NIV) – “They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated; they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations.”
- Nehemiah 2:17 (KJV) – “Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in... come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.”
- Jeremiah 30:17 (ESV) – “For I will restore health to you, and your wounds I will heal, declares the Lord.”
- Psalm 147:3 (NLT) – “He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds.”
- Amos 9:11 (NIV) – “In that day I will restore David’s fallen shelter—I will repair its broken walls and restore its ruins—and will rebuild it as it used to be.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer of Surrendered Ruins

Father, I bring every broken piece before You—the areas I’ve tried to hide, deny, or survive. I lay down the ruins of my emotions, memories, and unmet expectations. Begin the rebuilding work in me. I trust Your hand even when I don’t understand Your process.

2. Prayer of Inner Healing

God of all comfort, touch the places where trauma still lingers. Heal my mind from torment, my heart from betrayal, my body from stress, and my soul from despair. I break agreement with every lie I believed during the season of brokenness.

3. Prayer for Relational Restoration

Lord, redeem every relationship that has been fractured by misunderstanding, manipulation, or mistrust. Bring reconciliation where You desire it and release where You don’t. Heal the parts of me that keep attracting brokenness.

4. Prayer of Divine Reconstruction

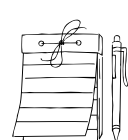

Holy Spirit, be the Master Builder in my life. Rebuild my confidence, restructure my identity, reestablish my peace. Where walls have fallen, build trust again. Where gates have burned, restore boundaries with wisdom and grace.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Lift your voice and declare:

- My broken places are not my burial places.
- God is rebuilding the ruins of my past with the glory of His future.
- I carry the oil of joy where mourning once ruled.
- Every place of devastation in my soul is now a construction zone for destiny.
- I declare: My emotions are healed. My identity is whole. My future is secure.
- I am no longer fragmented—I am fortified.
- I will live, love, and lead from a healed heart.
- I declare: The broken places have been rebuilt!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Take a few moments to journal:

- What emotional or relational wounds am I still carrying?
- What “ruins” from my past continue to affect my present?
- In what area do I need God to begin the rebuilding work today?

Write down what the Holy Spirit reveals. Surrender the rubble. Trust the Builder.

[illegible]

DAY 7: RESTORING YOUR DESTINY

Theme: Divine alignment, destiny recovery, purpose fulfillment, generational impact

Devotional Teaching: “Destiny Cannot Be Denied”

You were born with a purpose.

But along the way, life tried to bury it.

Disappointment, delay, demonic interference, and decisions—yours and others’—may have derailed the path. But what God authored cannot be erased. Your destiny isn’t a fragile dream—it’s a divine assignment sealed by heaven.

Many people live beneath their calling because they’ve surrendered to survival. But survival is not your portion—destiny is.

Throughout Scripture, we see God restoring destiny after loss:

- Joseph’s betrayal became the platform for national deliverance.
- Esther’s captivity positioned her for royal purpose.
- Ruth’s widowhood opened the door to generational legacy.

And in Luke 19:10, Jesus declares His mission: to “seek and to save that which was lost.” This includes lost purpose. Lost identity. Lost destiny.

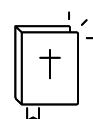

Jericho was the final barrier before Israel stepped into promise. Today is your final shout. Your walls have fallen—now your destiny must rise.

Let every lost scroll be reopened.

Let every buried gift be resurrected.

Let every stolen promise be returned.

You will finish what God started in you.

Key Scriptures

- Joel 2:25 (NIV) – “I will repay you for the years the locusts have eaten...”
- Jeremiah 29:11 (NLT) – “For I know the plans I have for you,” says the Lord. “They are plans for good and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope.”
- Luke 19:10 (KJV) – “For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.”
- Romans 8:30 (ESV) – “And those he predestined, he also called; those he called, he also justified; those he justified, he also glorified.”
- Philippians 1:6 (NLT) – “He who began the good work within you will continue his work until it is finally finished on the day when Christ Jesus returns.”

WARFARE PRAYERS

1. Prayer for Destiny Activation

Father, in the name of Jesus, I call forth the original blueprint You wrote over my life. Where purpose has been buried by fear, failure, or confusion—resurrect it by fire. Align my steps with Your divine intention for this season.

2. Prayer to Break Destiny Detours

Every person, place, or pattern that has delayed or derailed my destiny—I sever it now in Jesus' name. I uproot every false identity, wrong relationship, and wasted season. I refuse to live beneath my divine potential.

3. Prayer of Destiny Recovery

Lord, restore to me the years and opportunities lost to fear, ignorance, or sabotage. Open the doors I missed, redeem the detours I took, and realign me with the fullness of my assignment. Let destiny be restored and accelerated.

4. Prayer of Generational Fulfillment

I declare that I will not die unfulfilled. I will finish well. I break the cycle of incomplete assignments in my bloodline. I receive grace to walk in the fullness of God's plan for me—and to unlock purpose in those coming after me.

PROPHETIC DECLARATIONS

Lift your voice and declare:

- I was born with purpose and I will walk in it.
- My past cannot cancel my destiny.
- Every buried calling is coming back to life.
- I reclaim my scroll, my story, and my spiritual inheritance.
- I declare: My destiny is restored, my future is secure, and my steps are ordered by the Lord.
- I will finish strong. I will fulfill every divine assignment on my life.
- I decree and declare: I have crossed into my destiny!

REFLECTION & RESPONSE

Take a few moments to journal:

- What dreams or purposes have I abandoned that God may be restoring today?
- Have I settled for survival instead of stepping into destiny?
- What next step is God showing me to walk fully in alignment with my divine assignment?

This is not just the end of your Jericho Walk—this is the beginning of your restored journey.

You are no longer bound by altars, silence, shame, or loss.

You are aligned. You are anointed. You are activated.

Destiny has been restored.

NOTES

Reflections on scriptures, devotional reading, prayers and alone time on your Jericho Walk.

Closing Reflections:

CONGRATULATIONS, FAITH WALKER

You have completed the 7-Day RESTORE Jericho Walk + 24-Hour Prayer Watch. This was no ordinary act of devotion—it was a prophetic engagement with heaven, a war cry in the spirit realm, and a declaration that your season of loss has expired.

You did not just walk.

You warred.

You wept.

You watched.

And you won.

For seven days, you aligned your faith with the divine agenda of restoration. You tore down evil altars. You reclaimed your voice. You recovered your glory. You redeemed time. You repossessed your finances. You rebuilt broken places. And on Day 7—you reclaimed your destiny. But this is not the end.

This is a divine reset—a launching pad for your next. What has shifted in the spirit must now be stewarded in the natural. Restoration is not a moment; it's a lifestyle.

Take Time to Reflect:

Before you move on, pause. Sit in the presence of God and journal your answers to these questions:

- What walls have fallen in my life over the last 7 days?
- What evidence of restoration have I already begun to see?
- What assignment is God calling me to walk out from this place of victory?
- What did I learn about myself—and about God—during this spiritual journey?

Write your testimony. Share it with your community. Speak it until the atmosphere shifts around you. Your restoration is not just for you—it's a witness to others still circling their walls.

Keep Walking, Keep Watching.

You may have completed the physical Jericho Walk, but spiritually, you are still on the move.

Stay in prayer.

Stay in alignment.

Stay in watch.

Let this devotional mark the beginning of a lifestyle of prophetic walking, targeted prayer, and strategic warfare. Continue tearing down what God never built. Continue building what He ordained from the beginning.

Final Declaration

Say this out loud—boldly:

“I declare that I am RESTORED—fully, completely, and permanently.

My life, my voice, my glory, my time, my finances, my identity, and my destiny are restored by the power of God.

I am not who I was when this walk began—I am who God always said I was.

I walk forward in victory, in clarity, and in the fullness of His promise.

In Jesus' name, amen.”
